New Tenant Background Check Packages and Court Records Web Page

In an effort to make tenant criminal records as affordable as possible, EvictionRecords.com now offers PayPal's Bill Me Later program. This payment option makes financing easy and allows a customer to space out their payments during a six-month time period.

Customers at EvictionRecords.com may now have the option to finance their investment in tenant criminal records through the PayPal Bill Me Later program. This financing payment plan allows customers who make a purchase of more than $99 to take six months interest-free to pay off their balance. There are even options available for people who spend less than $99. Customers with a balance below $99 have 25 days to pay off their purchase.

EvictionRecords.com is an innovative company that is known nationwide as a reliable source of instant tenant criminal records and eviction tenant records. The organization constantly aims to improve the customer experience, and this includes making the already-affordable records searches easier for the average customer to manage. As a company, EvictionRecords.com recognizes that many customers both need and want a flexible payment plan option in today's economy.

Tenant screening customers who are interested in taking advantage of this unique opportunity must finalize their purchase through PayPal. When it comes time to submit their payment, they simply have to select the "Bill Me Later" button. If it is the customer's first time using the Bill Me Later service, the customer will need to provide PayPal with the relevant and necessary information, and PayPal will instantly make a financing decision about whether a customer is qualified for the credit. Once approved, the customer will not need to enter their information when making subsequent purchases.

EvictionRecords.com emphasizes the importance of security and privacy during the tenant criminal records search process, which is why it partners with PayPal as a payment processing system. With this latest move, customers not only have the option of security but also flexibility.
